

Post Conference Course 3:

Vaccine Safety

Contributions from:

Delese Mimi Darko, Food and Drugs Board (Ghana)

Alexander Dodoo, ISO P

Katharina Hartmann, Crucell Switzerland AG (Switzerland)

Jan-Willem van der Velden, Mesama Consulting (Switzerland)

The Vaccine Safety course is half a day on the Saturday 6 November 2010 (13.30-18.00, La Palm Royal Beach hotel)

Participants in this course will be able to better understand:

- The public perception on general safety with emphasis on specific areas of interest for Vaccines
- To identify the items to establish a Benefit-Risk ratio and the tools to investigate signals
- To understand the current regulatory and industry environment with respect to Vaccine Safety monitoring, also in the scope of a global WHO initiative
- To practice obtained knowledge with a few (real life) exercises

1. Introduction
2. Perception on Safety
3. Risk – Benefit – Balance
4. Regulatory environment and international monitoring
5. Tools to measure safety
6. Specific areas of interest related to Vaccine safety
7. Organization, implementation and implication of Vaccine Safety in Industry
8. WHO Blueprint initiative
9. Hands on exercises
10. Summary and Conclusions

Please do sign up!